Message of President

One Word

It is indeed the moment of pride for Development Organization for Community (DOC) to present the Annual report for year 2017. This takes us back to a decade when the young professionals of the area visualizing the socio- economic plight of the Balochistan area embarked with effort to form an organization to work for the socio economic amelioration & political emancipation of local population to bring them on the mainstream of life & make them vocal for their rights.

The preliminary efforts were highly challenging because, Rural areas is amongst the marginalized & vulnerable areas of Baluchistan therefore the local youth were having ample problems to access the national & international organizations to attract them to work in the area & understand its environment & Circumstances.

The will & commitment of young professionals involved in this unceasing struggle was towering & cemented. After the elapsing of around a decade, DOC is amongst the well reputed & committed organization working for the down trodden living under pitiable circumstances at gross root level.

DOC has been vehemently working in health education, advocacy, Agriculture, youth development, Skill Training & many other areas of community intrest.DOC collaborated with NAVTTC, PPAF, NHN, NRSP GFATM, World Federation Against Drugs (WFAD) ASP-Aid, Shirkat Gah, SPO, SGAFP USAID, GYSP, PACCD, IMMAP, and Gender Development Network Pakistan,GADAN Network Panjgoor & many other organizations in the implementation of the projects of public interest.DOC is thoroughly conscious of technical & formal education. The establishment of Public School, Vocational Training Center ,computer center, English Language center is a sustainable effort for community specially youth development in Balochistan. DOC aims sustainable change in the society with ample avenues of economic development, Physical infrastructure, Health & education development approaches. Our March for attaining best would continue unceasingly.

Thank you!

Mujahid Ali

President DOC

Introduction Development Organization for Community (DOC)

Commonly known with its acronym DOC is a registered civil society entity, registered under Social Welfare voluntary Organization act, 1961, with Directorate of Social Welfare/ Community Development Department Government of Baluchistan.

DOC is Balochistan based organization has been established by the group of young development professional after perceiving the sense of deprivation, vulnerability & rampant poverty in Balochistan. Balochistan is one of the highly marginalized & vulnerable d Baluchistan province.

Lack of basic amenities of life has compelled the young professionals of the district to address the genuine issues of the marginalized & deprived communities pertaining to their socio economic needs, sources of livelihood, capacity development socio-political emancipation & their participatory approach for self-development.

DOC envisions evolutionary change at gross root level for long term achievement & bringing a real change in human lives with visible changes in the lot of common man deprived from normal standard of human life.

Keeping in view DOC is endeavoring to streamline its access for achieving the desired results framed for its targeted population in economic development, health, health education, Education, human and institutional development, Community Physical infrastructure, disaster managements & natural resource sectors & campaigning for the dignity of human rights & ethical values & special adherence of child right, women emancipation.

Implementing the vision and transforming it into the real issues and needs of the masses, DOC has been able to come up with its desire, enshrined in its vision, Mission, objectives designed to serve people without the social, political, racial, sectarian & linguistic segregation. As defined earlier DOC is the core voice of marginalized & vulnerable communities. DOC is also conscious of the rights of transgender community- a deprived & ignorant community in our society.

The core aim of DOC is to initiate perpetual efforts for the basic & dire needs of community which has been devoid to them & strive to end the class segregation with viable slogan of rights to all without social status or political discrimination as well as economic influence. DOC advocates a uniform system based on equality & championing human and ethical values. Our slogans are forum independent societies with synchronicity for all.

DOC equally acclaims the rights of female and children. Women emancipation & bringing them on social , political & economic streamline accompanied with gigantic efforts for infusing participatory approach initiatives & struggle for attaining economic sustenance, safeguarding their rights including access to quality education, free will, political freedom, property rights and all such other rights which are almost denied to them & they are exposed to in human & immoral atrocities such as denial of free will in marriage, properties rights, right of vote in rural areas, women trafficking & prostitution.

Extreme poverty & backwardness has put the female of slum areas in unusual conditions which resulted in women trafficking, prostitution & ill practices. DOC vocally condemns such acts & will provide legal and administrative support to female besieged in such circumstances.

Baluchistan being backward in political fields. Has also made DOC to work for the political emancipation for male & female segments of the society. DOC is feverishly working on the political emancipation of basic political issues such as basic know how about political systems.

Achieving the rights of children is an esteemed goal for DOC. Access to quality Education, health, infrastructural & economic sustenance facilities is the real dream of DOC, besides this DOC is vocal against child labor, child abuse, bonded, forced labor among the children & would wage all out efforts for the child labor for children ageing between 5 to 16 years and all those abominable acts which are compelling child abuse, trafficking & all those acts and activities which are indulging the children in immoral activities

Socio - economic advocacy / capacity development will be the principal effort for bringing revitalization amongst the deprived communities (both urban and rural) coupled with formation of community groups in rural areas and community organization / Village organization (VOs) for the promotion of participatory approach of development on sustainable / cemented way to translate the vision, mission and agenda of DOC into desired human development.
